

This image shows a single sheet of graph paper with a standard grid pattern. The paper is off-white or light gray, showing signs of age and use. There are several dark smudges and stains, most notably a large, vertical, dark brown stain on the left side. Faint pencil markings are visible, including a small 'v' shape near the top left, some scribbles in the upper center, and a curved line on the right side. The grid consists of thin black lines forming squares across the entire page.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a visible vertical crease down the center, suggesting it was once folded. A faint grid pattern is visible across the page, with vertical lines spaced evenly apart. The paper is heavily marked with numerous small dark spots, scratches, and fibers, characteristic of old paper. There is no text or other markings on the page.
